One-Minute Stewardship

Creative Ways to Talk about Money in Church
Charles Cloughen Jr.

An invaluable resource for planning your annual stewardship campaign this fall.

“The way of love is a way of life centered not on self alone or primarily, but on God, others and the world that belongs to God and that has been greatly placed into our care. Charles Cloughen’s new book offers some practical ways to live out that truth, with powerful and inspiring contributions from leaders throughout the Church.”

—The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church

"I am retired but wish I had this book when I was in parish ministry. I would keep it on my desk as a resource surely as helpful as other meditations, being deeply grateful for the depth and breadth of Cloughen’s contribution to parish conversations about stewardship."

— Rev. Gail Cafferata, *Anglican Theological Review

One-Minute Stewardship is a collection of short reflections—indexed by scripture, theme, event, and lectionary—designed to promote the development of a meaningful theology of giving and the message of good stewardship every Sunday of the year.

Charles Cloughen Jr. has been an Episcopal priest for 50 years, serving in parishes in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Texas, and Maryland. He is the Planned Giving Consultant for the Diocese of Maryland.

We encourage rectors, vicars, priests in charge, and interims to buy books for their vestry and stewardship committee. Using this book, they can begin planning now for the fall stewardship campaign that will be an exceptional challenge due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Section III offers How to Construct Your Own Stewardship Mediations and How to Use them to Encourage Generous Giving.

It is a great resource for preaching and teaching the Good News of year round stewardship. What an ideal gift as you plan your fall stewardship campaign. Available from Church Publishing at www.churchpublishing.org, through any Episcopal bookstore, Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Cokesbury or your preferred bookseller.
